This Week in Worship

Greetings all,

We have come to the Fourth Sunday in Advent! Christmas is just a little over a week away and we are working hard on preparations for the big celebration on Christmas Eve and our one celebration service on Christmas Day at 11:00am. Check out the service times and descriptions in this issue of the Beacon and invite your friends to join us. We’re very excited to celebrate the birth of the King!

This week, Jason Baxter will begin our journey through the Gospel of Luke, which will take us all the way to Easter Sunday. In this first sermon, Jason will introduce us to Mary and God’s call to her to be the one to bring Jesus, the Son of God, into the world. The sermon, “The Sacrament of the Unexpected,” will be an excellent introduction to Christmas week, so you don’t want to miss it. I will be there to officiate the sacrament, but I’m grateful to Jason for giving me a chance to spend a little extra time on my Christmas Eve and Christmas Day sermons this week.

I look forward to seeing you on Sunday!
Pastor BK

Join us for a time to talk about the Advent Conspiracy and how Christmas can still change the world!

REMINDER: Last week as all agreed to do our best to cut back this Christmas and do something special by giving a gift to those in need through the Samaritan's Purse Catalog (Same organization that does Operation Christmas Child). Don't forget to bring your donation to help us choose what gift we will give. Will it be some chickens? Or maybe a goat?!

Youth Groups, 7-12 grade,

Outpouring

TLUMC supporting our Community
Monthly meeting Tuesday, December 20th @ 7pm

1756 Lake Woodmoor Drive

Meet Haley Chapin:

Haley Chapin, of Tri-Lakes Cares, will speak to us about the “Overhead Myth” what it really means, what is acceptable and what we, as a donor, should be looking for when deciding to make a donation to a nonprofit. Haley has served as TLC’s Executive Director since March 2010. Under Haley’s leadership, TLC has achieved Nonprofit of the Year twice (2010 & 2012) in the Tri-Lakes region. Her efforts have been recognized by Colorado Springs Business Journal, awarding her the prestigious Rising Star award in 2016.

It’s the season of giving, and many of us will be taking out our checkbook to write a year end donation to a charity that is close to our heart. But we should first ask ourselves some important questions:

- How do we know the money is going to be used wisely?
- Has the charity been vetted?
- What percentage of overhead does the charity have? Is it too high? Too low?
- How do you really know if your money is going to support the cause you want it to?
- How do you know if the nonprofit is financially sound?

Come out and have a good time, enjoy the company of old friends, meet some new ones and learn something new at the same time. Everyone is welcome! Water/soft drinks always available. Come early and have dinner!

We'll be picking them up after the 11:00 service. We started this collection three years ago and year and raised money to help brighten the season for church families for the Christmas season. The idea is based on a book in which rising newspaper reporter Hope Jensen uncovers the secret behind the "Christmas Jars" - glass jars filled with coins and bills anonymously given to people in need physically or spiritually. We will also be giving a copy of the book along with the Christmas Jar full of quarters, dimes and nickels (please no pennies). The collection box is in the Great Room.
