Lay Leaders

MEET YOUR TLUMC VOLUNTEER LAY LEADERS:

The Lay Leadership Committee would like the TLUMC congregation to meet the volunteer lay leaders of each of the church committees. Over the next several issues of the Beacon, you will get a snapshot of those individuals who devote their time and make things happen at TLUMC. Enjoy, and when you get a chance, thank them for the service they provide TLUMC. Volunteers are always needed for these committees. Should you be interested in any of the church committees and ways to support TLUMC, please feel free to contact the chairperson or the church office.

PHIL BROWN:

As president of the United Methodist Men (UMM) I lead the men of TLUMC in service to our congregation. We meet the third Saturday of each month for prayer, Bible study, and breakfast. We work on church projects, help people in need, and serve outdoor BBQs here at church during the summer. We also provide the Shrove Tuesday Pancake Suppers. We would like to have more men join us. I am the son of a minister and moved to Colorado Springs as a boy. I have been in construction all my life, working as a plasterer since I was sixteen. I also most recently served for twelve years as the Sergeant-at-Arms in the Colorado State Senate. In church, besides being involved in UMM, I teach an adult Sunday School class at TLUMC. I have taught a Sunday School class in other churches for thirty years. My wife, Iris, and I have been attending TLUMC for eight years and love the spirit of the church, the preaching, and the friendly people.

CHERYL SCHARP:

I am the leader of the TLUMC Prayer Team. We have nearly thirty volunteers from the church who form small groups and meet each week to pray over the prayer requests from each Sunday Service, the Prayer Wall, and online prayer request submissions. My husband Bob and I moved to Monument in 2001 after living in many places throughout the world. We joined TLUMC in 2002 and have been blessed with this wonderful church family. I was a school teacher most of my life and also had a private practice for counseling in Monument. I am now retired and have served on just about every committee of the church. For five years I was employed at TLUMC as the Director of Congregational Care. Currently, Bob and I often serve as greeters and hosts at the Welcome Desk on Sundays. Growing up, I attended church each Sunday. My dad used to tell me that I had always had a choice about going to church. “Cheryl, you can attend the first service or the second service!”

JOHN DICK:

I am the chair of the Stewardship Committee, which helps the pastors plan for pledge giving each year. We are blessed at TLUMC to have a gracious congregation that gives generously to help us sustain the wonderful programs taking place here. I also arrange the Lay Reader schedule so we have one of our congregation involved in each of the 8:00 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. services. My family moved to Colorado Springs from Chicago where I was involved in construction planning for bridges across the US and internationally. My wife Nancy, daughter, Stephanie, and I joined TLUMC in 2008. This is a most caring and friendly church. Many of you prayed for me and supported our family during some recent, critical, medical situations.

Vision Team Update

by Jeff Gray

Earlier this month, TLUMC Church Council approved a new Vision for our church; charting the course toward our future: Theologically Traditional, Personally Transformational, Outwardly Missional. The Vision Team appreciates your diligent survey responses and thoughtful focus group comments over the past 9 months. The church-wide 52% response rate represents a clear indicator that TLUMC people have a strong sense of ownership in our church and its future. Church Council intends to conduct an implementation planning session in the April/May timeframe, and Pastor Bob is preparing a sermon series for Autumn 2019 to dig into the meaning of our TLUMC Vision.

Theologically Traditional means we affirm the authority of Scripture, using the Bible as the authoritative source for our life and faith and believe that it contains all things necessary for salvation; confess “the faith once delivered to the saints” (Jude 3), drawing our essential theological, doctrinal, and ethical convictions from the Scriptures and the Apostles’ and Nicene Creeds; with a distinctively Methodist perspective, in our expression of faith, practice, and discipline.

Personally Transformational means we pursue holiness of heart and life, through the means of grace, especially by watching over one another in love through involvement in small groups. We believe that every Christian is called by God through the power of the Holy Spirit to journey toward holiness. We understand holiness as extravagant love for God, sacrificial love of neighbor, and freedom from the power of sin. This transformation is inwardly experienced and outwardly demonstrated. A Christian grows in holiness by attending regularly to the means of grace: searching, reading, meditating, and studying the Scriptures; prayer; fasting; attending worship; partaking of Holy Communion; and participation in Christian community. Transformation takes place most effectively when Christians meet in small groups designed for support, encouragement, help in overcoming sin, and instruction in the life of holiness.

Outwardly Missional means we seek to “do all the good we can to the bodies and souls of people;” through acts of compassion, service, and justice; for all people (especially the marginalized) locally, regionally, nationally, and internationally. While we believe we are saved by God’s grace alone, we also believe we are saved for God’s mission in the world (Eph 2.8-10). We do good works for others so that they may experience the comprehensive salvation of God: relational, physical, and spiritual wholeness. Jesus commanded us to pray that God’s Kingdom come on earth as it is in heaven; thus, we work for what we pray for. We work for individual and social transformation so that when the Kingdom of God comes in its fullness it is not a culture shock. We take seriously Jesus’ Great Commission (Matt 28.18-20) and follow an Acts 1.8 model for missions, seeing the world as our parish. Our mission field is Jerusalem (Monument/Tri-Lakes area), Judea (Pikes Peak Region), Samaria (the socially outcast), and the ends of the earth (the US and beyond).
